OBJECTIVE

I am starting my career in web development and seeking a full-time job, where I could grow my skills effectively and apply my knowledge, to get a great professional experience.

PROJECTS

- Perfect-body

ReactJS, Redux, CSS3, HTML5, Webpack.

I was working as a team lead during making this project and its idea is about keeping yourself in the perfect fit.

- Filmoteka

JavaScript, HTML5, SASS, Gulp.

On this project, except coding, I was also working as the Scrum master. Its main idea is to collect your favorite movies.

- IceCreamWithPassion

HTML5, SASS, Gulp.

This was the first of my student projects. I worked as the team lead with two more mates, and we tried to make it look tasty.
